1. The following troop trains were observed at Halle during the period from 9 March to 1300 hours on 12 March:
 - a. Three troop trains carrying unidentified units from the direction of Magdeburg toward Erfurt during the night of 9 March.
 - b. A train carrying the headquarters signal unit of the 3rd Shock Army en route from Magdeburg-Buckau to Rossleben at 0720 hours on 9 March.
 - c. A train carrying an unidentified unit from Magdeburg-Buckau to Rossleben at 1200 hours on 9 March.
 - d. Three trains; one loaded with vehicles of the 6th Guards Tank Division and of the 14th Guards Mechanized Division, and another carrying the headquarters units of the 3rd Guards Mechanized Army, coming from the north and proceeding in the direction of Erfurt on 10 March.
 - e. A train loaded with tanks of the 20th Guards Mechanized Division coming from the direction of Magdeburg and proceeding toward Jena at 1300 hours on 12 March.*
 2. One troop train was observed en route from Boetzow to Altengrabow on 4 March; a second one travelled the same route on 5 March. Two troop trains were dispatched from Rathenow to Altengrabow on 9 March.
 3. A single troop train, returning the troop units which had trained at Altengrabow to Potsdam, was observed on both 4 and 7 March. A total of 4 troop trains left Fuerstenberg for Dessau on 7 and 9 March.
- * Comment: The trains observed on 9 and 10 March probably carried units to the Naumburg area for an exercise there. This appears probable, since the shipments observed on 9 March were dispatched to Rossleben.
-  Comment: The trains from Fuerstenberg probably carried components of the 2nd Guards Mechanized Army which were to participate in an exercise in Thuringia.
